There is Nothing Like a Trip to Yellowstone National Park

I know of no other spot in all the world that is in any way similar to Yellowstone. It offers to the vacation seeker, weary of the sameness in ocean or land travel or the monotony of the seashore or mountains, a distinctive outing unrivaled. Imagine the fascination of a six day stage tour of this Great National Park stopping daily at picturesque and well kept hotels. Think of geysers, throwing out boiling water to great heights, immense waterfalls, deep chasms with marvelously colored sides.
Then to make the trip doubly enjoyable, my road—the Burlington Route (C. & O. R. R.) provides a special conductor every week who acts as guide and points out everything of interest and who looks after the comfort of our patrons right from the start at Chicago.
Let me send you a copy of our booklet showing maps, pictures and descriptions of Yellowstone Park, and the beautiful Mississipp Valley that you pass through en route. Let me help you plan your trip and take care of the details—I will gladly do it. Write, call or telephone

Bullet

Is Stopped by Silver Dollar in Man's Pocket and His Life is Thus Saved.

PENDLETON, Ore., June 7.—A silver dollar in his shirt pocket saved the life of Joe Hays, who was shot by George Ackley. Hays and Patrick Isadore went to the restaurant of Ackley and ordered hot tamales. There followed a quarrel with Ackley, who claims that Hays was trying to kill him while Isadore was trying to knife him. Ackley drew a revolver and fired.
The bullet struck Hays squarely over the heart, but was flattened and stopped by the silver dollar.

Keen Ears

Of Officer Detects Ticking of a Watch in an Alleged Thief's Socks.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 7.—But for the acute hearing of Night Captain Bert Weare, John Kent might not be occupying a cell in the city jail. He is charged with petty larceny.
Kent was arrested in company with A. W. Hinkley on complaint of E. G. White. White said he met the men in the morning and that while he dozed in a chair in a saloon, Kent's watch was stolen. He accused Kent, who was searched at police headquarters but the watch was not found. The police were about to turn the men loose when Captain Weare said he heard a watch ticking. The ticking was traced to Kent's left sock. White and Hinkley were held a witnesses.
